SELIKE COUNTY JOUENAL

IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY M. D. & L. E. SAMPSON,

SALINA, KANSAS.

OFFICE .- To. (9 Spain I'e Avente, serr'y op TERMS OF SUESCRIPTION :

ADVERTISING BATES:

kape will be charged dileen per cent. above re Bills for regular, advertising will be collected quirely. Where for a less period than three months p race in three mouths without additional cost. Begular advertions will be charged sitteen cents pe

Eusiness Directory.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

J. M. SNEAD, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Selins, Kenne

HERRY LOCAR, A PROPERT AT LAW, Galles, Essen JOHN FOSTER,

ATTORNET AND COUNSELOR AT LAW, OR MOHLER & CARVER,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Olice on Iron Ave., en W.S. WAIT,

ATTORNEY AND COURSELLOS AT LAW, Lincoln County, Kanasa. E. W. HODGKINSON: ATTORNEY AND COURSKLEOR AT LAW. Office with Card. Wildman, Santa Pa Avenue, S. lina, E. 1

LOWE & HILLER. ATTORNITS AT LAW., No. 25 Sente Pe Ave., Selling, Kanits.

ATTOR EYS AT LAW. Office, seats Fe Avenue, Sching Kassen. Will attend topmy business in the District Courts of Saline, Education, Odiawa, Lincola, Merberson, Rice, Dickinson, and other countries in Western Estimate.

ATORREY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. Will attend presuptly to any legal business within the lefth andigital Distret. meets attention gives to buying or selling real extate, paying taxes, or collecting. Office on Lincoln Avenue, next door to the Floorer Morie, Lincoln Center, Kanare.

PHYSICIANS.

J. W. CROWLEY, M. D., (LATE SURGEON IS MO. VOL. CAV.) Office, No of Direct St., Salien, Kauson.

MOMILOPATRIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. OF SALINA MEAT MARKET

RAM. I. FOX. HYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office—South Fe are-the, over Radeliff Bres. & Had'e hardware store, ba-ina, Ess. 41.

J. W. DAILY, M. D., HYSICIAN AND SURGEON, (formerly the U. S. army be pital,) No. 60 Santa Fe line, Kansas.

HENRY VERNON, thysician, official and accounties, Lincol ater, Lincoln county, Kaness. Respectfully solisis patronage of the project

> DENTIST. DR. R. E. NICKLES.

HARDWARE. C.W. TRESSIN.

DEALER IN HARDWARE & IMPLEMENTS, Selms

REAL ESTATE AGENT. BISHOP & NORTON. Concret Real Ketate Agents, No. 83 Sants Fo avenu

JOHN W. BERKS,

Maj. JOHN W. BERKS,

L'AL DETATE BUSINESS—Kaneas Central Land
Agency. Also have for sale all the Lands of the K-unun-Pacific Railway Company, amounting to ever 3,— 600,000 acres of the most desirable in Central and Western Kantas; also, Mill-sites, Coul Lands, Ferns Cattle Ranches and city property in Salma and the peraboring towns, for sale at all times.

E-Send for the Hannes Confrol Advances, a large B-column lead paper, we what we have for sale and read all about the great Keystone State of the West.

INSURANCE AGENTS. BISHOP & HORTON, General Insurance Agents, No. 23 Santa Fe aver

ABSTRACT OF TITLES.

BISHOP & MORTON,

HOTELS. TRAVELER'S HOUSE,

W. THOM, Proprietor. Good stable and good ac amedations. Minnespolis, Ottawa county, Kansas MECHANICAL.

M. C. STANLEY, CARPENTER, BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR.

C. B. MAEDEL MACHERIST & GURSHITH, Salina, Ka

S. C. SERVILLE, Some, sign, frence and currence painter. Marbling graining and paper hanging done with neutness and dis-stable. No. 10 Fifth street, Salina, Kanssa.

MOUSE, SIGN, CARRIAGE, GRAINING AND Freece painter, Paper banging &c. Shop on Santa To Avenne, south of Beebe's hardware store.

J. R. CHAPMAN. MOUSE, SIGN AND CARRIAGE PAINTER. Glassing and paper banging done with sentness and dispalsh. Opposite Treesia's hardware store, up stairs LAUCHLIN & FITZGERALD. GARPENTERS AND BUILDERS, Salina, Kansas Are propered to contract for buildings of any kind in the or county; also for moving buildings. Shop on the street.

FREIGHTING.

CHARLES HOLMOUIST. DRAYMAN, Salles, Koness. All kinds of freightin in and about the city premptly done. Leave order with him or at Lindgren Brother's store.

BOOTS & SHOES.

Attention, School Directors. To Sell School Deales In lag time, and the parties H. R. LEWIS ACO .

Saline County Sournat.

They say. But why the tale rehears And help to make the matter work? Ke good can possibly access From telling what may be unique; And is it not a nobler plan To speak of all the best you can?

They say—Well, it it should be so, Why need you led the tale of woe? Will it better the wrong resizes, Or make the jiang of sorrow less? Will it the erring one resizes, Beauciorth to "go and sin no more?"

They say—0, paner, and look within, fee how those heart inclines to sta; Watch, lest in durk temptations' hour Them, 100, shoulded sink hebenth its pe Pity the fruit, weep o'er their fall, But speak of good, or not at all.

HARLET'S CHANCES.

BY CAPT. CHARLES HOWARD.

Prior to the great financial crisis of 1837, Joshua Martin was deemed the

The memorable crash of that decade ruined Joshua Martin. He had staked more mentioned in the fashionable soci-

The troubles of the bankrupt's family at intervals, he might have recovered, ety of "St. Jo."

them on the street.

SALINA, KANSAS, MAY 1, 1873.

NUMBER 12.

Salina Adbertisements. They say—Ah! well, suppose they d But can they prove the nexy tree? See, vicion may arise from mangle But mailes, eary, want of themph!; Who count yourself among the "the Who whisper what they dare not say

Ringquist & Hamlin, MERCHANT TAILORS,

VOLUME 3.

114 Canta Fe avenue, Calina, Kansas. We have on hand the best qualities of cloth ever brought to failus. We have a most fishiosable entire, whose equal can not be found in Central or Western Kansas. We have also a good and complete stock of ready-made clothing. For charging is clothe and dis-ribility we can excel all the glothers of this part of the CITY BAKERY.

At Dr. Grier's Old Stand Confectionery and Eatery.

Pice and Cakes of all hind . Cheese and Fruits of all partitions. Kuts of all stades. Sardines, Sc. Hot Tea and Coffee at all Hours Fresh Oysters in Every Style. Cakes of all kinds made to order on short notice. GEO. J. LAY, Propriet

PACIFIC HOUSE, EPPRIES & POSTLEWAIT, Prop OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE, SALINA, - KANSAS.

Free 'Bus to and from all Trains. The Partie House is a new building and contains the courainness of a dest class hotel. A spacious sample room has been opened and arranged for the use of travelers. It is located awaity opposite the countries buildings, warre good board can be obtained at all time with or without rooms. Satisfaction guaranteed.

George Krueger, ARCHITECT and BUIL!ER.

Plans and Specification. Drawn to order, buildings measured up and com-constructed. Jou work come to order. SHOP:

101 Santa Fe Avenue, L. M. T. TLE & SON. PROPRIETORS.

We have opened a First Class Meat Market in the rooms formerly occupied by Radiciff Bros. & Hall's Furniture Rooms, where we will keep a fresh supply of mests of all kinds. We will spare no paint to please all who may call. All heavy puskages delivered in any pust of the city free of charge. Cash paid for Hides Petts, etc.

Mr. Clarkson will continue, at this stand, his bust-

NEW MEAT MERKET. SANTA FE AVENUE, SALINA, KANSAS,

Ellison & Carlberg.

REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE

Loan Agento.

Office over John Geis & Co.'s Bank,

SALINA. KANSAS

SALINA HOUSE.

Opposite Depot.

EAST SIDE, Two DOORS FROM CORNER

Mas catival of all Trains

FREE STABLE

no connection with the reckery at the corner that has copied my sign.

W. D. JENNERSON, Proprietor

BANKERS.

Santa Fe Avenue, Salina, Kas

NEWS, BOOK

STATIONERY DEPOT

A full line of Writing Papers,, Ink, Pens, Punk Stands, Pen Racks, Paper, etc., etc.

uh rates. reperal assortment of the best

Magazines and Pictorials

Daily and Weekly Newspapers

Saline, Kansas.

WHITEHEAD & SEAM POSTOFFICE BUILDING

Good Meals and Ledgings at reasonable rates.

To those who wish to find their own tood.

SCRYEVOR.

Where the people of Sailna will Jad Choice From Mouls piano, and a few other pieces that Mau-Oried and Smoked MeatS We hope by industry and fair dealing to merit a share of public patroage. Our motio is "Live and Let Live." Highest Cash Price paid for Hides

York.

Maumee Martin had grown to bewitching womanhood during her life in St. Joseph, and her ac omplishments rivaled her beauty. After the death of N. F. CARROLL, her father-after her transformation in to the child of a despised bankrupt-sh did not shrink from the duties that fell Wight & Carroll,

> She must live; she must earn her daily bread; and a week after the change of life, we find Maumee Martin plying the seamstress' needle, or giving lessons in music to a few children whose parents of the safe. sent them to her because she taught cheaper than regular musical preceptors.
>
> By and by, the house which they oc-capied was sold over their heads; but the new owner—a great middle aged, but somewhat handsome man—assured them that they should not be turned The new owner was a stranger in St.

loseph; but immediately after purchasing the property above mentioned he commission store, and at one opened a commission store, and at once drew a thrifty patronage about him. Andress Harley, for such was him name, came often to the home of the Martins, and reports went abroad to the effect that he intended to wed the bank-

"My chances are decidedly good, bent over the counting-room desk. "The thought in that direction. The beauty Lee." of her daugter would draw the widow's "N JOHN GEIS & CO.,

"I held the keys, sir," answered Phil-lip quickly. "I have not missed them "Girl," he sai for a single moment. But the safe has thing to you?"

been opened by keys."

Andreas Harley dropped his head in deep thought, while the clerk stepped to his deak, and summoned up various columns of figures on the back of an ea-velope which he drew from an inner

"Three hundred dollars have been purloined within four weeks," said Les, turning from his desk.

most prosperous merchant in the then frontier city of St. Joseph, Wisconsin. He was noted for his sterling integrity and stainless character; and, if he reveled in wealth, he did not parade it be-"It staggers mo," returned Harley. "But we will watch the thief, and if we catch him, be shall have his reward." fore the eyes of the people.

He came to St. Joseph in 1831, and at coat, and the clerk walked from the room once began to amass a fortune. Those Andreas Harley beard him close and who pretended to know, said that the lock the outside door of the store, and of the jail shall be open to him."

merchant operated in eastern stocks, and then stepped toward the desk, his dark

Fire flashed in Maumee Martin's dar merchant operated in eastern stocks, and then stepped toward the desk, his dark that the bulk of his wealth was staked eyes fixed upon as object which lay among the bulls and boars of New thereon.

It was the envelope upon which Phillip Lee had been fluguring.

"I'll look at his figures," he murmurwhich embraces the dates above written, ed; but the next moment pe turned the overything in eastern securities, and he envelope and stared at the superior suddenly found himself a comparative scription. It was merely "Phillip Lee, beggar. Poor blinded man! He could present," but the chirography startled the merchant. Those delicately formed overything in eastern securities, and he envelope and stared at the superior sat among the ruins of his tortunes, like letters by had encountered before. And Marius among those of Carthage. Fore-ed to relinquish the imposing residence he half fearfully drew the letter from its sternly. ed to relinquish the imposing residence which, in his eagerness to delve deeper hiding place. into stocks, he had mortgaged away, he was obliged to remove his family, con-

For a moment his eyes remained fixed sisting of a wife and one daughter, to started from the desk while something cated. an humble dwelling; and from the date like an oath fell from his lips.
of that removal, the Martins were no "So, Maumee Martin," he en

"So, Maumee Martin," he eried, hurling the letter to the floor, and gazing angrily at it, "you possess a lover beside Andreas Harley. Girl—I will not subdid not end here. The blow killed the mit to this. It you prefer the employee merchant. Though a strong man, he to the empoyer, you must hunt another could not bear up under his loss. If a home. But by heavens you shall not few thousand had been taken from him wed him, as he stands before the world now. He has held the keys to the safe. and regained his position; but the de-struction of tens of thousands at one fastened upon him. Harley's chances sweep of the waves, overwhelmed him. do not look so bright now; but I fancy He sank rapidly, and died, leaving his that a little sternness will bring the gir family to buffet the waves of the world, to terms. She's a beggar now, almost and to do the best they could among Does she want to marry another?"
those who once knelt at their feet; but Then he picked the letter up, and read who now did not doign to recognize it again, placed it on the dosk where the youth had left it. When a rich man suddenly becomes The contents of the missive did not poor, the grave is the best place for him. amount to much. It was merely a reply spiracy—never!"

It is a house of refuge, where he is eafe to one which, during business hours, Yet that day the Mother and daughter took quite readimine of information to Andreas Harley. fortune, and they found a temporary fashion, with scarcely an idea of her no proof that the individual re-vaccinaly to their new life. They sold much of He had never encountered his clerk at abode with Phillip Lee's widowed mothown but she must be finally held action would have taken small-pox. the gorgeous furniture which had orna- the home of the Martins. They had er. mented their late home; but kept the spoken of him but once or twice, and then casually; and he had suspected nothing until the letter was thrown in his way. Several days of quiet preceded the bursting of the storm.

Clerk and employer encountered each other often, but no unusual words passed between them. It was evident that The young man's face assumed a deathly Andreas Harley was displeased at some hue and Mannee's mental ejeculation thing, but he took care to conceal his displeasure as much as possible.

The night following the one that wit nessed the scene in the counting room described above, witnessed the robbery

This time thirty dollars were abstract ed, and Andreas Harley called one of the clerks, Theodore Mason, to his deak and acquainted him with the facts. Mason, upon being asked if he pected anybody, said: " Lee.' The merchant started at the announcement, but a flush of triump stole to his "I saw Lee standing by the store last night at eleven, while I was going home from the club," continued dason, evincing an eagerness to unburdened himself of something that proyed upon his mind. "He did not speak as I passed him, but perhaps he did not see me, as it was raining and be carried his unbrella low -a little lower than was necessary, I

"I am on the right trail," said Angirl appears coy, but she will come about dreas Harley, exultingly. "And yet," in time. People think that I am after feigning a sorrowful tone, "I do not the widow; but I never entertained a want to think the purlomer is Phillip tears, fell to the floor, he left his chair themselves treasures in her and came to her side.

and started to ber feet. "He is something to me facing the merchant, through whose scheming she seemed to have seen in-Andreas Harley, he never robbed your not know what to say, but at last he found his tongue. "Girl, be is guilty, I greatly regret to say; but you can save him.

The merchant for some moments did "How, Mr. Harley ?" "By becoming my wife! I can liber ate him, and on such conditions the door

"Andreas Harley," she cried, "you der is the door that leads into the street," and with quivering finger she pointed to the portal.

"This house is mine!" he said. "I care not."

"I can turn you out into the snow. "There is the door! I wish to live under such bounty as yours no longer." "I will not go until you promise me to become my wife," said the merchant, the room, and Maumee sprang into the upon the brief communication, when he chamber, which her mother had just va-An instant later she reappeared, bear ing a musket of quaint and clumsy workmanship.

At that moment the widow entere

"Go, Andreas Harley," she cried, in a determined tone. "Mother please open the door for the plotter." Wondering what had transired to ma the the triendship existing between opened the parlor door, and Andrea Harley, with elenched hands and venge ful visage strode from the room.

No sooner had he departed, than Man mee dropped her the gan, and threw her self into her mother's arms. "Oh, mother! mother!" she how swittly one misfortune follows another. But," and she lifted her head. Phillip shall not not be condemned He shall not fall the victim of a con-Yet that day the Martins were driven of her lover's arrest and preliminary examination, and the following day she musical earnings. When night came she made her way to Treodore Mason's chamber, and startled the clerk by her abrupt appeara

"I've found the right man." She knew much of Theodore Maso he denied the charge, but when he saw the pistol clutched by the girt's fair white hand, he changed his tune. He wrote his confession on paper, Maumee called a young lawyer into the confession implicated Andreas Harley crimes by the merchant, who had promto convict Phillip, who, in time wedded Maumee Martin.

Young Mason was permitted to escap and when Harley heard of the confes-sion, he heartily disposed of his store and followed him. The guitty clerk left behind the keys with which he had opened the sale, and they still hang in the of Chicago's merchant princes.

Country vs. City Life. Contributed by the Ladies literary Club.]

turn them out, if Maumee becomes stubborn, and says 'No!"

He was the sole occupant of the counting room; but as he crossed the threshold and turned to lock the door, he heard a footstep and a voice down the dark sisle.

Flushed with triumph, Andreas Harlark as footstep and a voice down the dark sisle.

Hold a moment, Mr. Harley. Resones the counting room, please. I wish the morning following Phillip ones the counting room, please. I wish the morning a tree is as for the law.

The accused clerk found himself in the written as in letters of gold, the good ness of the law.

The poet has said:

There we come in contact with the best living minds of the age, partake of their tirely new way of measuring the beight watch the awakening of natures first of throw off the claims of witter.

There we come in contact with the best living minds of the age, partake of their way of measuring the beight watch the awakening of natures first of throw off the claims of witter.

There we come in contact with the best living minds of the age, partake of their way of measuring the beight watch the awakening of natures first of their way of measuring the beight watch the awakening of natures first of the watch the awakening of natures first of the watch the watch the awakening of natures first of the age, partake of the "Hold a moment, Mr. Harley. Roopen the counting-room, please. I wish a few words with you."

The merchant recognized the voice of one of his clerks.

He did not reply, but stepped into the coay counting-room, closely followed by Phillip Lee.

"Well?" he inquired, turning suddenly upon the handsome young clerk. "Speak quickly, Lee; I must be going."

"All I desire to my is, that some of the fends of the hone hay mysteriously disappeared."

"What?" cried the merchant. "Say that again, boy."

The merchants a first clease of the country of the fends of the hone hay mysteriously disappeared."

"One afternoon, while you."

"I me sorry that I have occasioned to the fends of a farmoon, while you."

"I me sorry that I have occasioned to the merchant. "Say that again, boy."

"I me sorry that I have occasioned to the fends of a farmoon, while you."

"I me sorry that I have occasioned to the merchant in polar of a few and assess the mean without on the merchant again, boy."

"I me sorry that I have occasioned to the merchant of the country of the country is the place to the country is the place to distinct the first and the country is the place to distinct the first and obtain it. It is a hackney of the country is the place to distinct the first and obtain it. It is a hand the country is the place to the country is the place to distinct the first and obtain it. It is a hackney of the true, the country is the place to distinct the first and obtain it. It is a hackney of the country is the place to the country is the place to the country is the place to the first and the country is the place to the country is the place to the country is the place to the first and the country is the place to the first and the country is the place to the country is the place to the country is the place to the first and the country is the place to the country is the country had the country is the first the country had the country is the first the country had the were absent cast, I placed nine hundred and fifty dollars in the safe, and the following morning forty-five were missing."

Manuel took the paper, and, in a moment, mastered the account of Phillips arrest.

House took the paper, and, in a moment, mastered the account of Phillips arrest. counting possibly."

"If I cannot count money correctly when it is before my eyes, I deserve to be thrown out of employment," said the youth, in an insulted air. "Several times during your absence, have I noticed the peculations of some unbown pages and the several and the several against him," he answered, and then while the fair girl's head lay on the pages and her are against them, while the fair girl's head lay on the varied duties which meet them. her bosom, and her eyes, awimming in on every side thereby laying up for

> Manmee quickly drew from his grasp, fortune. Even should his wishes be attained how little pleasure or satisfaction arises from it in the majority of cases. Alas! it often proves his downfall and ruin. If riches be gained at the expense of health and morals, better ever

Vice is a monater of so frightful mien, As to be halrd needs but to be nees. But seen too off, familiar with her face. We first cudare, then pity, then embi-

The resident of the city cannot well fail to become familiar, with vice, when it is daily brought before his eyes. Then parents I warn you for the safety of your as matters of record. words with regard to health. When Providence has bountifully supplied us with pure fresh air, why should we saffer ourselves to breathe the imparities of a densely populated city? Common sense plainly tells us, in order to keep our bodies in a healthy state, pure air is indispensible. If for no other condition than that of health, which is one of our greatest blessing. I would say, keep away from the city! Instead of the green fields stretching as far as the eye keep away from the city! Instead of the groun fields stretching as far as the eye age of deaths from small-pox is only can reach, and the sweet music of the about eight of the two per cent. who feathered songster, the dweller of the city has nothing but brick walls surrounding him, keeping the aunahine away from the home and heart. Over the pavement the numerous vehicles are rattling almost deafening one if he attempts with open doors and windows to read aloud, talk, or even think, and on either side your neighbor, if so inclined, may learn all your family matters, when to take than the original virus from th talked over, unless perchance your orrou to lower your voice to a whisper, then conversing upon subjects which rou wish to keep from the world.

The farmer's wife often feels her lot o be a hard one, and sighs for fashionable city life. Ah, could she for one year exchange places with this devotee of fashion, how willingly and gladly would she return to her quiet country loid. tainly one of the greatest slaves in exstence. For with party giving and go ing and all other places of amusement, and the time required for preparing her toilet for these occasions, what time has superior in social position he once was. cation of "Dear Phillip" had o ened a tered them since their first great mis She becomes, alas, a mere butterfly of > countable for the buried talent. My dear sisters, I am aware that I nerely touched upon the beauties of the country and the many advantages of purchased a pistol with a portion of her living there, yet I will leave the subject for fear of occupying too much of your

The beauties of the country have been sung by poets, exaited by sages and raved about by setimentalists until it would seem almost madness to attempt habits, and she judged him to be the to stem the current of popular opinion obber of the merchant's safe. At aret by advocating the superior advantage of the city. W ile on the other hand the vice and immorality of the city have been painted in such hideous colors that There is no more real satisfackaho the uninitiated shrink with abborance from the mere thought of contact, and are led to exclaim like one of old, "Can any good come out of Nazareth." It has been said " God made the country, man made the city;" but the writer evidently did not comprehend the true ism of Pope, which says, "Man is the noblest work of God;" nor recognizes an other of that great man's sayings, "The proper study of mankind is man," or he would have seen at a glance that the city contained the most of God's noblest work, and offered the largest field for the greatest study in the world But, Pope aside, and coming down to our own plane of thought, divesting ourselves of all prejudice, it is not difficult to discern the many advantages of Nebudkeeneggar did, an city over country life. The more gation go to grass too. wealthy a comunity, the more privilages wealthy a comunity, the more privately of the soul.
it enjoys. Seer at money as we will, of the soul.
Did you ever hear a son braggi dubbing it the "root of all evil," we shout his tather whos father could we soul, there dwell even the faintest spark cannot deny it is the root of much good. most devoted adorer to her side. That girl's a beauty. She must become Mrs. Harley; she shall! Yes," after a long pause, and as he slowly turned from the decidedly good. You own their home, and in the depth of the winter you can then and in the depth of the winter you can then accessed clerk found hims! In the depth of the winter you can then accessed clerk found hims! In the depth of the winter you can then out, if Manmee heromes atth.

"Nor do I," said Mason; "but circumstances condemn him. I could tell of poetical or apiritual element, there is for apiritual element, there is apir purpose of on, etc., but h their Makfitted to perh meet them ring up for son.

be and tree or come when the flour is out, the girl just taken a fit to leave, baby got the measiles and you hardly able to drag around. It may be very poetical to till the soil, getting your eyes, care and mouth full of deat, and to milk the course when the flow bits, and measuatons ply when the flow bits, and measuatons ply your eyes out, and then to be revenged for missing the flier, cooly plants one of he classic pedestals in your milk pail. The perfume of the stable may be pense of health and morals, better ever remain in poverty. In thinking of the dangers of city life the words of the poet come to my mind. proach to them by those of opposite sentiments would very soon rob them of all their romance.

in ten would be the result of small-pox. 2nd. Without vaccination, nine out of twenty would have small-pox. Srd. Without vaccination sixty-sever vaccine is a better preservation of vario loid than small-pox is.

8th. Humanized virus whether it mary cow virus does. 9th. It is not proved that either he-11th. There are certain individuals

Josh Billiags' Papers. A gentleman iz a gentleman world over-loafers differ.

Benevolence iz the cream that rises Courage without discretion is a re with horns on both ends-be will bare more fites on hand than be can well in laying up in yure buzzum an injury than there is in stoffing a dead h who has stung you, and keep him tow Old friends are like old che are liable tew call a man "father" he least expects it.

own souls, and let our nabors alone, there would be less time lost and more souls saved Before I would preach the gospel as

The following propositions are offered as matters of belief and some of them lat. Without vaccination, one de would be fatal. 4th. With vaccination, not two per cent. of the inhabitants will take small-per cent. of the cases of small-pox will take it. 6th. A larger percentage of those who have but the small-pox, will have the secondary disease than of those who

7th. Humanized virus is more likely takes or not, does not produce such semanized virus or primary cow virus is the better in its protective effects. 10th. There are certain individuals who do not seem susceptible of varioshe do not seem susceptible of vergis-12th. The taking of email-pox after vaccination is no proof that a second 12th. A successful re-vaccination own, but she must be finally held ac- tion would have taken small-pox.

on the milk or human kindness.

ing after a lost sheep in the wilderness; when you find it, the chances are that it A dog iz the only animal kritter who laves you more than he lave himself, atrongest. Lies are like illgimate children-

All money that is well spent iz a good investment. If we would all or us take kare or our some ministers are obliged to, for 450 dollors a year, I would get a living as Nebudkeenezzar did, and let the congretears, fell to the floor, he left his chair themselves treasures in heaven.

Many a person leaves his quiet country he said, "is Phillip Lee anytry home, entering the city with the trying to brush them of gives yet a thing to you?"